DS 785: Capstone Final Documentation

The Capstone Final Documentation contains the following three items:

Capstone Title Page
This is the title page of your final report (simply copy and paste).

Author Introduction
Provide a professional personal introduction narrative (half page to one page). The author Introduction should be written in third person.

Executive Summary
The Executive Summary should be no more than one page in length and should highlight the main points of your capstone project. The Executive Summary serves as a short summary of your project.

The Executive Summary can address items such as:
• Purpose of the project
• Data science concepts related to the project
• Methods and analysis used in the project or business plan
• Conclusion: what was discovered/created/learned
